Dean and Phil's Outdoor Adventures
Alberta, Canada

Dean & Phil,

I wanted to touch base with you and let you know how much we enjoyed our trip. I had hoped to see the duck and goose numbers we did, but I never dreamed we would have the in-your-face action we experienced, especially with two TV cameras and the extra staff in the field. I tell people all the time; "It's one thing to take birds while hunting and it's another thing to take limits of birds ... while filming a TV production." Having three decades experience as an outfitter myself, there are no doubts yours teams scouting efforts paid off in a big way!

Speaking of your staff, it was a pleasure to watch all of the work and efforts they put forth. Everyone was very knowledgeable in field and a pleasure to be around at the lodge. Ability and personality are hard to beat, especially at a hunting lodge.

Along with your staff, your lodging facilities were great as well. It was nice to relax on the porch of your trophy room and listen to the birds on the lake below. Not only did I enjoy the layout of your lodging facilities, it was a real treat to walk in and find the rooms spotless. I can't tell you how many times I been places and wondered if the bathrooms had ever been cleaned, but that certainly wasn't a question on this trip. Like our bedrooms, the bathrooms were very well kept.

In fact, our trip was very memorable, but I did have one thing that concerned me. Had I eaten in camp one more day, the airlines would have wanted me to pay for the additional weight coming home. I've been to a lot of camps/lodges over the years and no telling how many since we started filming Waterfowler TV, but never have I found anywhere that provided meals like you did. If I learned anything new from this trip, it has to be that anything and everything coming out of "Bev's Kitchen" is nothing short of fantastic. Be it the meals themselves or the cakes, pies and cherry tarts ... that woman can cook!

In closing, I can't wait to see the edited footage from the trip. I hope to have a chance to look it over before it airs on The Outdoor Channel next year, but for now ... I'll have the memories to keep me going! We're looking forward to seeing everyone again next season. Until that time ... "May all the birds land at your feet!"
